The history of surfing is like one long ride in which surfers relay the baton to each other across the years on a single, endless wave. PORTUGAL 74

THE SOLDIERS' REVOLUTION

Directed by Paul Le Grouyer & Bruno Lorrão
CinéTévé / 52'

▶ SCREEN ONLINE

In the early 1970s, when Portugal was still under the authoritarian rule of Europe's longest-lasting dictatorship, a handful of military officers decided to risk everything to try to free their country. In the shadow of the regime, they devised a coup d'état like no other. From that coup, a revolution blossomed: the Carnation Revolution. 50 years after that day of insurrection – April 25, 1974 – this documentary, which unspools like a historical thriller, aims to explore the multi-faceted events that would change the fate of an entire nation.

PART 2

Directed by David Korn-Brzoza
CinéTévé / 2 x 50' & 90'

It was the 20th century's most violent war of decolonization. From 1940 to 1954, the jewel in the crown of France's colonial empire was on fire. Each and every bomb, each and every round of ammunition masked military aid from major Western and Communist powers for whom winning the conflict had become a high stakes objective for the next stage of the Cold War... For the first time ever, this exceptional documentary aims to recount the entirety of that forgotten conflict.

PART 2

Directed by Mickaël Gamrasni
CinéTévé / 90' & 2 x 50'

On the night of February 27, 1933, the German Parliament building burned down, and democracy went along with it. In just a few hours, then a few days, the fates of an entire country and of all of Europe were upended. But who set fire to it? The Dutch Marinus Van der Lubbe alone? The communists with him? Or the Nazis? Ninety years after the event, it is time to shed light on one of the major mysteries of the 20th century.

LISBON AND WWII SPIES, GOLD AND DIPLOMACY

▶ SCREEN ONLINE

Directed by Bruno Lorrvão & Christiane Ratiney

Portugal managed to get through all of World War II without firing a single shot. Caught in a vise between the Axis and the Allies, Antonio Salazar, the country's strongman, used every trick in the book to get his country through unscathed. In this war of nerves in which anything went, the Portuguese dictator took brilliant advantage of the only weapon available to maintain his country's independence: neutrality.

HISTORY UNCOVERED COLLECTION

Cinétévé / 16 x 52'

Myths die hard, and the history of the 20th and 21st centuries is no exception to the rule. Even now, there are dubious notions that we still take for Gospel truth. What if the historical truth was slightly different? This archive-based documentary collection revisits key moments in the 20th and 21st centuries from a new perspective in order to provide a subtler and more thoughtful interpretation, shedding light on elements that have been forgotten or sometimes overshadowed.

U-BOAT: NEW THE UNDERWATER THREAT

▶ SCREEN ONLINE

Directed by Paul le Grouyer

German U-boats have gone down in history as all-powerful war machines. Despite an unfavorable balance of power, they reigned over the Atlantic Ocean throughout World War II. And yet... U-boats were never actually anything more than what Nazi propaganda wanted them to be: psychological weapons. Lurking in the oceans' depths, they terrorized Allied crews, but were in fact unable either to prevent the provision of Allied supplies chain or to reach any strategic targets. The miracle weapon that Hitler and his successor Doenitz hoped for did, however, result in a massacre that claimed the lives of nearly 30,000 German submarine crewmembers and 72,000 Allied sailors. So the U-boats' image is actually far darker than the legend of daring U-boat captains sinking seagoing giants through sheer force of will would have us think.

THE CUBAN MISSILE CRISIS NEW KENNEDY'S DEFEAT

▶ SCREEN ONLINE

Directed by Bernard George

The Cuban missile crisis has gone down in history as a victory for the USA over the USSR. At the end of an escalation of tension during which the threat of nuclear war hung over the world, Kennedy got Khrushchev to remove his missiles. In Western public opinion, Kennedy's firm response to Soviet aggression averted a devastating nuclear war. And yet! Behind the scenes, President Kennedy made all sorts of concessions. For one thing, his Soviet counterpart obtained a guarantee of safety for Fidel Castro's regime. And of greater strategic importance, a secret agreement arranged for the withdrawal of American missiles in Turkey that had threatened the USSR until then. So what was the true outcome of the missile crisis?

THE NEW DEAL AN AMERICAN FAILURE

NEW

▶ SCREEN ONLINE

Directed by Deborah Ford

The New Deal has been lionized for gotten Americans through the Great Depression. It provided them with financial aid, work and new rights. And yet, the program's - modest - success was obtained by a compromise with the racist, segregationist Jim Crow system in America's southern states that excluded African-Americans from its benefits.

AFRICA HOTSPOT OF THE COLD WAR

NEW

▶ SCREEN ONLINE

Directed by Barbara Necek

In our collective memories, the Cold War evokes a period of conflict that took place strictly between the American and Soviet superpowers. Conducted essentially in a divided Europe, that war is believed to have spread to Asia, the Caribbean and South America... basically everywhere but Africa. And yet! In their efforts to enlarge their spheres of influence, both the Americans and the Soviets went to Africa, too. In the midst of decolonization, that continent became a new territory for power plays meant to demonstrate their respective model's superiority, as well as to lay claim to the region's natural resources and key geo-strategic areas.

THE COLD WAR A KREMLIN INSTIGATION?

▶ SCREEN ONLINE

Directed by Mickaël Gamrasni

The Cold War has gone down in history as being instigated by the Soviet Union. And yet... Unlike the popular understanding, the spiral of events was triggered and fueled by the USA. Between misunderstandings, false impressions, and inappropriate reactions, President Truman's obsessive anti-Communism triggered a dangerous escalation of tension that spun out of control, tipping the world into four decades of belligerent peace and nuclear dissuasion.

ISRAEL A PRODUCT OF THE HOLOCAUST?

▶ SCREEN ONLINE

Directed by Philippe Saada

The creation of the State of Israel has gone down in history as a direct consequence of the Holocaust. And yet... Its foundation was, more prosaically, the outcome of a cynical game on the part of the post-war superpowers, and particularly the USSR's desire to assert its presence in the Middle East. Flying in the face of popular belief, Israel is strictly the product of Stalin's diplomacy; the genocide of European Jews played only a marginal role in the creation of the Jewish state.

NAZISM MADE IN GERMANY?

▶ SCREEN ONLINE

Directed by Barbara Necek

Nazism has gone down in history as a strictly German affair. And yet...

That vision conceals Austria's role as a testing ground for the Third Reich's murderous undertaking. Not only did Austria supply the Nazi regime with a pool of high-ranking officers, but it proudly pioneered the Nazis' scheme, experimenting with the persecution and extermination policies that would go on to be generalized by the Germans.

SUB-PRIMES BLAME IT ON THE USA?

▶ SCREEN ONLINE

Directed by Paul Le Grouyer

The subprime crisis has gone down in history as an American disaster. And yet...

The shock wave hit the Old Continent hard. By revealing the fault lines in the Eurozone, it triggered the worst recession in its history and jeopardized its fragile union. At the end of the day, although the United States got back on the path to growth fairly quickly, Europe is still picking up the pieces today.

OCCUPIED EUROPE A FRAGMENTED RESISTANCE?

▶ SCREEN ONLINE

Directed by Cécile Coolen

The image of the Resistance that has gone down in history is one of Partisans struggling on their own against the Nazi occupiers. And yet... In many occupied countries, clandestine networks were mobilized, organized and funded by a secret British organization, the S.O.E. (Special Operations Executive). Wanting to defend other nations' freedom while also aiding Britain's strategic interests, their contributions sometimes turned into interference that shaped the post-war period. For better and for worse.

VIETNAM AN AMERICAN WAR?

▶ SCREEN ONLINE

Directed by Bernard George

The Vietnam War has gone down in history as a conflict of national liberation. And yet...

Hidden behind the myth of the victory of a nation fighting for its freedom lies the story of a tragic civil war in which Vietnamese people came face to face with enemies they knew well: friends, neighbors and relatives. It was a fratricidal struggle that tore families apart, causing trauma that neither side escaped from unscathed.

THE DENAZIFICATION OF GERMANY A SUCCESSFUL PROCESS?

▶ SCREEN ONLINE

Directed by Mickaël Gamrasni

Posterity has inherited an image of the denazification orchestrated by the Allies and continued by the Germans after WWII as having been successful. The process is believed to have extracted German society from the throes of fascism, to the point that Germany has become a model of democracy. And yet! That massive purging was far from thorough; on the contrary, it hit plenty of dead ends and let many issues slip through the cracks.

THE BRITISH EMPIRE A MODEL OF DECOLONIZATION?

▶ SCREEN ONLINE

Directed by Déborah Ford

Posterity has inherited the idea that British decolonization was a consensual and exemplary process. Unlike the other colonial powers, the government of Her Majesty offered the peoples under its dominion a peaceful transition to independence. And yet! With violent repression, forced displacement of populations, internment camps and civil wars, the British crown didn't let go of its colonial jewels until it was forced to... often at the price of great bloodshed!

JOHN-PAUL II A MODERN POPE?

▶ SCREEN ONLINE

Directed by Christiane Ratiney

John Paul II has gone down in posterity as a modern pope who defended freedom. And yet! Favoring upholders of traditional morals over reformists, the Holy Father broke the momentum (towards freedom) in developing nations – particularly in Latin America. Preferring injustice to unrest, he also covered up scandals in an institution that claims to be exemplary. A pope whose fast-track canonization conceals numerous gray areas...

SWITZERLAND AND WWII AN EXEMPLARY NEUTRALITY?

▶ SCREEN ONLINE

Directed by Philippe Saada

History has bequeathed to us an image of Switzerland as a country that maintained admirable neutrality during World War II. And yet! From 1939 to 1945 the tiny Confederation abandoned its legendary values, and business-as-usual took precedence over other considerations. The country preserved its neutrality by taking liberties with its most fundamental principles, even when those concessions compromised its own honor.

OPERATION OVERLORD A MASSIVE VICTORY?

▶ SCREEN ONLINE

Directed by Bernard George

Posterity has inherited an image of Operation Overlord as a heroic achievement. Thanks to an instinctive understanding uniting the British and the Americans and the combativeness of their troops - the Allied Landing is remembered as an overwhelming victory. And yet! Between disagreements amongst the leaders, hasty planning, logistical problems and the soldiers' lack of preparedness, Operation Overlord was very nearly a fiasco.

RONALD REAGAN AN UNQUALIFIED PRESIDENT?

▶ SCREEN ONLINE

Directed by Cédric Condon

Posterity has inherited a disastrous image of President Reagan: a series B actor with limited intellectual capacity who preferred napping to reading briefings, and playing cowboy on his ranch to taking his role as president of the United States of America seriously. And yet! One of the most popular and controversial President in American history is nothing like the caricature of him.

THE SPANISH FLU THE INVISIBLE ENEMY

▶ SCREEN ONLINE

Directed by Paul Le Grouyer
Cinétévé / 52'

In April 1918, while Europe was plunged into WWI, an extremely virulent flu swept across every continent. Wrongly called «Spanish flu», it raged for two years, causing the death of more than 50 million people before disappearing and falling into oblivion. A global historical investigation, thanks to access to rare and previously unseen archives and the use of the international press, photos and personal diaries of the time, the film will offer both deep insight and a chronological analysis of one of the major collective catastrophes of the 20th century.

FURCY FIGHTING FOR FREEDOM

▶ SCREEN ONLINE

Directed by Pierre Lane
Cinétévé / 52'

For over 25 years, from 1817 to 1843, Furcy, who was officially considered a slave on Bourbon Island (the former name of Reunion Island), fought to get the highest court in the Kingdom of France to recognize his status as a free man. The most amazing part of the story is that he won. There is no other known case anywhere in the world in which an enslaved person sued his master in order to regain his freedom. Just a few years after the verdict was returned at the Royal Court of Paris recognizing Furcy's freedom, slavery was abolished in all French colonies.

This unprecedented investigation offers a voice to those minors, the social outcasts of a new Iraq that only a handful of NGOs are trying to help.

BROKEN KIDS

THE UNTOLD STORY OF YOUNG ATHLETES

▶ SCREEN ONLINE 52' VERSION

▶ SCREEN ONLINE 90' VERSION

Directed by Pierre-Emmanuel Luneau-Daurignac
Cinétévé / 52' & 90'

They are our future gymnasts, swimmers, figure skaters, hockey, tennis or football players... yet their childhoods are sacrificed in pursuit of elite-level sports. Children as young as 10 years old already suffer from recurring injuries, burnout, or eating disorders. Despite the initial outcry against the harsh training regimes in the Eastern Bloc some forty years ago, high-performance sports institutions have failed to learn from past mistakes. Instead, taking advantage of the lack of specific legal protections, the Western world appears to have not only perpetuated but also refined these practices. This eye-opening international investigation sheds light on the widespread adoption of inhumane training methods in high-level sports, with children bearing the heavy toll of our relentless pursuit of medals.

Cinétévé / 52' & 82'

A unique art-history saga, this film recounts the troubling story of the African artwork that fills European museums, and whose return is now being demanded by their countries of origin. Snatched up like trophies by colonizers, the works fertilized European art before acquiring recognition as universal masterpieces in their own right. But in Africa, their absence is still traumatic. Through the burning question of their possible restitution, the film invites us to reconsider both our cultural heritage and museums' role in reinventing our relationship with Africa.
